DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Joseph A Sawyer (Reg # 30,801) on December 15, 2005.

The Examiner corrected the non-compliant drawings submitted August 1, 2005 using the label provided in the drawings submitted September 26, 2005.

2. The application has also been amended as follows: the letter --the-- is added to claim 8 between the words "wherein" and "heatsink" on line 2 of the claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 3-5, 7-9, and 11-24 are allowed.

4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The allowability resides in the overall structure of the device as recited in independent apparatus claim 1 and at least in part, because claim 1 recites: "...wherein the circuit board is connected to the module... wherein the connection is provided by at least one spring connector and at least one rigid connector...".

The aforementioned limitations in combination with all remaining limitations of claim 1 are believed to render said claim 1 and all claims dependent therefrom patentable over the art of record.

The closest reference to the present invention is believed to be Ku (PN 6,384,331).

Ku teaches wherein the mounting module is rigidly coupled to the chassis and circuit board, the mounting module for cooling the computer assembly, but did not disclose "...wherein the circuit board is connected to the module... wherein the connection is provided by at least one spring connector and at least one rigid connector...".

5. The allowability resides in the overall structure of the device as recited in independent apparatus claim 9 and at least in part, because claim 9 recites: "...wherein the heatsink assembly ... is also coupled to a processor on a circuit board... at least one spring connector coupled between the heatsink assembly and the circuit board... at least one rigid connector coupled between the heatsink assembly and the circuit board...".

The aforementioned limitations in combination with all remaining limitations of claim 9 are believed to render said claim 9 and all claims dependent therefrom patentable over the art of record.

The closest reference to the present invention is believed to be Ku (PN 6,384,331).

Ku teaches wherein the mounting module is rigidly coupled to the chassis and circuit board, the mounting module for cooling the computer assembly, but did not disclose "...wherein the heatsink assembly ... is also coupled to a processor on a circuit board... at least one spring connector coupled between the heatsink assembly and the circuit board... at least one rigid connector coupled between the heatsink assembly and the circuit board...".

6. The allowability resides in the overall structure of the device as recited in independent apparatus claim 22 and at least in part, because claim 22 recites: "...wherein the circuit board is attached to the heatsink assembly... by at least one spring connector coupled between the heatsink assembly and the circuit board; and... by at least one rigid connector between the heatsink assembly and the circuit board...".

The aforementioned limitations in combination with all remaining limitations of claim 22 are believed to render said claim 22 and all claims dependent therefrom patentable over the art of record.

The closest reference to the present invention is believed to be Ku (PN 6,384,331).

Ku teaches wherein the mounting module is rigidly coupled to the chassis and circuit board, the mounting module for cooling the computer assembly, but did not disclose "...wherein the heatsink assembly ... is also coupled to a processor on a circuit board... at least one spring connector coupled between the heatsink assembly and the circuit board... at least one rigid connector coupled between the heatsink assembly and the circuit board...".
